Summary

- Rescue Story :

- Aria was found abandoned on the street, left behind in a cage and understandably confused by what had happened to her. Since then, she has shown incredible resilience and is now hopeful for a brighter future with a loving family. Aria is in perfect health, has been spayed, and has already begun her vaccinations. With her sweet, curious personality, she's ready to leave her past behind and start a new chapter filled with care, safety, and love.
