Summary

- Maddie is the sweetest and friendliest cat you could ever meet. Sadly, she was dumped by her family and left to survive on the streets all alone. As a house cat, Maddie was never meant to live outside and struggled to survive in such harsh conditions. Despite everything she has been through, she remains incredibly loving, gentle, and affectionate with people. Maddie is now safe and looking for a forever home where she will finally receive the love, comfort, and care she truly deserves.
