Summary

- Paddington was found abandoned on the street with an injured leg. After surgery, he recovered quickly and is now thriving ...happy and enjoying life for the first time.
- During his recovery, he formed a beautiful bond with Lovely the cat. They've become the best of friends, playing together and spending every moment side by side.
- These two share a special connection and would love to stay together. Please consider adopting or fostering them both; they'll bring joy and companionship into your home.
